C. Work Requirement

In order to provide a quality horse show experience, we must have enough staff for each show and at work bees. We require all members and/or their representative to work a minimum number of RFSC sponsored shows and pre-arranged work bees

Required time is defined as six (6) to eight (8) hours per show:

1. One (1) show for a Non-Competing Single/Individual member
2. Two (2) shows for a Non-Competing Family
3. Two (2) shows for a Competing Single/Individual member
4. Three (3) shows for a Competing Family

To be considered an active member all members must work at either the opening or the closing.

Some examples of "jobs" are ringmaster, ribbon person, gate person, booth help, barrel setter, judging and club house help. You will not be entitled to RFSC perks and benefits (Year-end Awards) until you have your hours and are considered an active member.

Active member status will carry over for the next year if you sign up and put in your hours for that year. An inactive member (not getting your required hours in) at the end of the season will have to pay a $50.00 penalty along with their regular membership fee to be able to rejoin next year.

RFSC is a non-profit organization, we must follow the rules and regulations set forth by law 501(c)(3).

I wish to become a member or renew my membership in the Red Flannel Saddle Club. A youth may not sign up as a member without an adult parent or guardian consent signature. The membership year will be from January 1st through December 31st. You must renew your membership by May 1st to remain active. If you are an inactive member, you will be charged a $50.00 penalty in addition to your membership fee and will remain inactive until your hourly commitment is met. In signing this pledge sheet, I agree to the commitments stated on the attached sheet. I understand that if I am a new member, I will not be considered active or entitled to club privileges until my hourly commitment is met.

I have read the RFSC membership requirements sheet and agree to abide by the rules.
