In order to provide a quality horse show experience, we must have enough staff for each show and at work bees. We require all members and/or their representative to work a minimum number of RFSC sponsored shows and pre-arranged work bees.

Required time is defined as 12 to 16 hours for individual members, and 18 to 24 hours for families.

To be considered an active member all members must work at either the opening or the closing, or at one of the designated work bees.

Some examples of “jobs” are ringmaster, ribbon person, gate person, booth help, barrel setter, judging and club house help. You will not be entitled to RFSC perks and benefits (Year-end Awards) until you have your hours and are considered an active member.

Active member status will carry over for the next year if you sign up and put in your hours for that year. An inactive member (not getting your required hours in) at the end of the season will forfeit all eligible year end awards.

RFSC is a non-profit organization and follows the rules and regulations set forth by law 501(c)(3).
